

Bio Patrik Silborn

Patrik Silborn is Senior Director Resource Mobilization and Financing at the Asia Pacific Leaders Malaria Alliance (APLMA). He works on various aspects of long-term financing for malaria and access to health with countries, development banks, donors and the corporate sector. Initiatives include a ground-breaking partnership with ADB and the Global Fund; corporate sector engagement in both financing and innovation the malaria elimination agenda; domestic resource mobilization and innovative financing initiatives.

Prior to joining APLMA, Patrik Silborn was Head of the Private Sector Engagement Department of the Global Fund. In 2016, the Department secured contributions of more than US$850M from corporations, foundations and high-net worth individuals for the period of 2017-19. Patrik also led the Global Fund's Innovation Hub - a partnership platform to engage businesses and other actors to support program implementation and strengthening country systems – as well as the Global Fund's work on innovative financing models such as debt-swaps, blended financing, and social impact bonds.”